It is well enough for the youngsters to indulge in harmless frolic on Hal-low-e'en, but the placing of an iron urn in the middle of the sidewalk, or a horse-block in the main traveled roadway, on a dark night, might result in some very serious accident, as it nearly did on last Saturday evening.

Our exclamations of wonder over Ocdualified success, both socially and financially.

The rooms with their daintily tinted walls, bright new carpets and tasteful floral decorations, formed a very cheerful setting for the shining array of tables, and promptly at five o'clock, the ladies began the serving of a most appetizing supper. For more than two hours were they kept on the jump to supply the demands of the long line of hungry, though smiling, individuals that flied into the dining-room so continuously that at last one of the ladies declared there was nothing left save "one doughnut and a dried mosquito." However, all were fed at last, and then followed a most enjoyable literary and musical program, introduced by a few appropriate remarks and a brief dedicatory prayer from Rev. Clizbe. The program was as follows:

A man who writeth for newspapers is of few days and lots of grief. He riseth in the morning and knoweth not what the day may bring forth. If he telleth all the news he runneth a great risk of getting a tin ear put on him, and if he getting a tin ear put on him, and if he telleth not the news the people say he is n. g. The crafty man cajoleth him into giving a fifty-cent puff for a five-cent cigar, and fond mothers frown on him if he faileth to flatter their freckled faced broods. And all his ways are ways of woe, and his days are full of sorrow. The life insurance man tackleth him, and the book agent layeth

The many friends in this vicinity of Rev. J. H. Tanner and family, will be interested in the following account of the cordial manner in which they were welcomed to their new field of labor, by the good people of Mendon. "On the evening of Oct. 27, their domain was suddenly invaded by a party of uninvited guests, who proceeded to have things very much their own way by seizing two center tables and loading them down with a beautiful set of china, numbering 118 pieces. Then followed an appropriate presentation speech, an appropriate presentation speech, which was happily responded to by both Mr. and Mrs. Tanner, after which refreshments were served from well-filled freshments were served from well-filled ELGIN, WALTHAM, COLUMBUS, and baskets, and the company dispersed with mutual good will and satisfaction."

Nearly every pattern of A Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that & Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children. DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves.
